Q. Palmer Chapman of Westerly was elected a member of the executive committee for three years at a meeting of Pomona grange held at Quidnisset, taking the place of Lyman Aylesworth, who died recently. Representatives from all the granges in Washington county and many from Kent county were at the meeting, which was for the purpose of discussion of the subject of Raising and Breeding Dairy Cattle. The main address was by L. E. Mayo, superintendent of the farm connected with the state asylum at Medfield, Mass., where he has charge of two hundred Holstein cows. The discussion that followed was led by C. Palmer Chapman of Westerly, followed by C. A. Masoon of Rocky Hill, A. S. Reynolds, W. D. Babcock and C. F. Bentley of Quidnissett and Mrs. M. A. Mrs. Amasa Hoxie, of Quonocontaug, was elected secretary to fill the does not attract as many people as does the ordinary auction sale of a few household effects. This was demon-strated in Westerly Wednesday morn-ing when the Pawcatuck Valley street taug, was elected secretary to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Lens Sweet of Slocum. The fifth degree was conferred on four candidates and it was voted to extend the full degree during the year, being the first time for Quidnissett grange.

There was a literary session in the afternoon and the poets studied were Alice and Phoebe Cary; the participants were C. S. Damon of Kingston, T. E. Mathewson and Mrs. E. W. A further condition of the sale was that the purchaser be required to pay in cash or certified check satisfactory to the assignee and deposit of $5,000, when the property is declared sold to him. The sale was subject to mortgage of $50,000.

Just as Auctioneer Slocum finished reading the notice of sale and the conditions, Judge Sweeney stated that he represented James R. Cross, a stockholder in the company and protested Mrs. Joseph Dias was badly burned at her home on Omega street Tuesday. She was frying doughnuts when she overturned the kettle, spilling the boiling grease over her left arm and portions of her face. The grease caught fire and set her clothing and the carpet afire. Her calls for help were heard by Mrs. Charles Staplin who lives in the same house, and Mrs. Staplin gave her aid after extinguishing the flames on Mrs. Dias, and put out the fire in the house. Dr. Thurber was called and gave medical aid. The holder in the company and protested against the sale by reason of illegality of the proceedings, Dr. Champlin joining in the protest.

Better Than Wealth

Some of America's wealthiest men are in POOR HEALTH. In the scramble for riches they have burned up their vitality. Gladly would they buy back the HEALTH of their youth-but it is too late. They have destroyed certain bodily functions—there is no substitute for a worn out stomach.

KING'S PUREMALT taken in time, and with regularity, will keep your system invigorated and avoid regrets and specialists' bills in later years. It contains Hypophosphites of Iron and Lime and is pleasant as well as healthful to take Collier's Weekly, in its Issue of September 2, 1911, published an article entitled, "Here Are Foods That Are Pure," by Margaret Wagner. There was printed in this article "A List From Which Housewives May Choose Without Doubt or Hesitancy." This list was the result of several years, an alytical work by the pupils of the State Normal School at Westfield, Massachusetts, under the direction of Professor Lewis B. Allyn. KING'S PUREMALT is mentioned among the food products of absolute pure quality.

KING'S PUTTIMALT is sold at all drug stores and in strict conformity with the Pure Food and Drug Act of June 20, 1906. Send for prices to your druggist or to us.

IF YOU ARE AN ALTRUIST

You will shop early in the morning. Between the hours of half after eight and eleven o'clock will be the ideal time. It is then that the salespeople are at their best, the shopper unwearied and the stocks in orderly condition.

You will buy Red Cross Stamps and stick one on the back of each letter or parcel you send during the holiday season.

You will carry all packages not over-large. This will lighten the burden of the over-taxed delivery men some of whom have worked all night in seasons past that you might not be disappointed in the delivery of your gifts.

ALL THIS YOU WILL DO IF YOU ARE AN ALTRUIST AND HAVE THE REAL CHRISTMAS SPIRIT IN YOUR HEART
